

2023 Lakes Congress
“Restoring & Preserving New Hampshire’s Lakes”
 Friday, June 2, 2023

AGENDA
8:00–9:00 am	Registration: check-in, visit exhibitors, enter raffles, network, enjoy refreshments
9:00–9:15am	Welcoming Remarks (Winnepesaukee Ballroom)
9:15–9:45 am	Keynote – Indigenous Waterways – Protection, Restoration, and Sustainability (Winnepesaukee Ballroom)
9:45–10:00 am	Break (Upper Barn, Lower Barn, Chris Craft Room)
	Track A: Lake Policy & Advocacy (Laker Room)	Track B: Lake Ecology (Garwood Room)	Track C: Watershed Management (Carriage House)	Track D: Lake-Friendly Living (Waterfront Tent)
10:00–10:45 am Session 1	The Plan to Address Toxic Cyanobacteria Blooms in New Hampshire	Lake Water Quality Trends in New Hampshire	Big or Small - Watershed Management Planning for Your Lake	Tips for Lake-Friendly Living
10:45–11:00 am	Break (Upper Barn, Lower Barn, Chris Craft Room)
11:00–11:45 am Session 2	Restoring & Preserving Lake Health Through Local Septic System Ordinances	Cyanobacteria Blooms in New Hampshire's Lakes	State's Landing Case Study: A Watershed Management Plan Success Story	LakeSmart Success! A Community Working Together
11:45–1:00 pm	Lunch - (Ballroom and Waterfront Tent), Visit Exhibitors (Upper Barn, Lower Barn, Chris Craft Room)
	Track E: Hot Topics (Laker Room)	Track F: Aquatic Plants (Garwood Room)	Track G: In-Lake Management Techniques (Carriage House)	Track H: Effective Communications for Lake Associations (Waterfront Tent)
1:00–1:45 pm Session 3	Demystifying Shoreland Permitting	Introduction to Aquatic Plant Identification	Exploring In-Lake Management Solutions for Cleaner and Healthier Water Quality	Digital Media 101 – Best Practices for Social Media, Website, and E-News
1:45–2:00 pm	Break (Upper Barn, Lower Barn, Chris Craft Room)
2:00–2:45 pm Session 4	Building a Collaborative for Environmental Conservation in New Hampshire	Invasive Plant Management Techniques and Case Studies	Nippo Lake Case Study—Treating Lakes Once Cyanobacteria Blooms	Tips for Engaging and Growing Your Donor Community
2:45–3:00 pm	Closing Remarks (Laker Room)			